During World War II, with men engaged elsewhere in the war effort, hundreds of women pursued careers at the newly formed National Film Board. These pioneering women made movie history, creating work that spoke to the world with a distinctive Canadian voice.

Juxtaposing a dazzling array of archival material with dynamic animation by NFB infographics artist Mélanie Bouchard, director Donald McWilliams evokes the heady wartime years, when women played a key part in transforming the NFB into a major international studio.

Celebrate I Read Canadian Day with acclaimed children's author Ted Staunton! Ted has written over 60 books, including picture books, middle grade novels and YA books.

Ted Staunton is the award-winning author of over fifty books of fiction and non-fiction for young readers pre-school to YA. His graphic novel The Good Fight, about the infamous 1933 riot at Christie Pits was listed for the City of Toronto Book Award. His YA novel Who I'm Not won the CCBC John Spray Mystery Writing award. Those things said, he mostly tries to write funny, and he hopes that's the case with his newest novel, Comic Shift. Ted presents to students and educators across Canada, as well as teaching creative writing at George Brown College.

Walk in's welcome, space pending

Join Judith Clapperton, author of "Had They But Known Her," as she reads from her book on Olive Wilmot and hosts a Q&A. The book arose from an article in the Newcastle Village & District Historical Society newsletter about Ms. Wilmot, which alluded to a mystery surrounding her untimely demise in 1903.

The Heritage Speaker Series Collective has been formed to plan a series of heritage talks to tell the stories of our veterans and war efforts in Clarington, building on CLMA's Golden Tales oral history project. Through the continued sharing of stories, we commemorate and honour local Veterans, their immense dedication and sacrifice they made through war efforts that left a rich legacy of history in the Clarington community.
